OFM RFP No. 10-2000 is amended to include the following bidder questions and answers from the Office of Financial Management and to correct a typographical error in Section 4.2, Evaluation Weighting and Scoring. The correction to the typographical error is in bold print.

Section 4.2, Evaluation Weighting and Scoring is corrected to read:

The following weighting and points will be assigned to the proposal for evaluation purposes:

Technical Proposal – 50% Project Approach and Schedule/Methodology/Risk (25 pts maximum) Quality of Work Plan/Project Deliverables (25 pts maximum)	50 Points Maximum
Management/Qualifications Proposal – 40% Firm Experience/Qualifications (20 pts. maximum) Staff Experience/Qualifications (20 pts. maximum)	40 Points Maximum
Cost Proposal - 10%	10 Points Maximum
TOTAL FOR WRITTEN PROPOSAL	100 Points Maximum

Question 1. Will the Office of Financial Management maintain a list of potential subcontractors for this project?

Answer 1. No. The Office of Financial Management will not be maintaining a list of potential subcontractors for this project. Bidders will need to create their own subcontracting opportunities.

Question 2. The format appears to be different from previously issued procurements. Will this format become your standard or will the previous version be used?

Answer 2. The format for RFP 10-2000 is based upon procurements for personal service contracts as created by the Office of Financial Management. This format differs from the procurement format used by the Washington State Department of Information Services for its IT projects.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF OFM RFP NO. 10-2000 REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT.
